plained that while the provision would Tive to the Postmaster-General just about the same discretion he now has as to interchanging the different services, the provision really was intended to bring the two services under one head in the department and to simplify he accounts. Senator Bankhead insisted that Congress should retain the right to have created discord between the exsay how much should be spent on each service.

Senator Swanson declared that the tion of the department was not friendly to that service. Senator Simmons agreed with Mr. Swanson. He declared the provision to be a de-liberate conspiracy against this great service to the farmer." He admitted that the star service was much cheaper, but declared it to be much les efficient than the rural service.

Senator Root taunted the Democrats "sudden great friendliness" for rural free delivery, which he as-serted was wholly a Republican in-

Senator Johnston ended the debate nd straightened out the tangle by professor, were accorded the honor deadding a proviso that not more than of the total amount of $49.-000,000 for the two services should be spent on the star routes. This leaves the division of the appropriaion as at present. was accepted by every one.

Points of order were sustained against a proposed experiment in carrying packages under a parcels of $50,000 for an investigation into the feasibility of establishing a par-

Before passing the post-office bill, the Senate passed the sundry civil and the naval bill, two more of the great supply measures for administration of

(Continued From First Page.)

come tax amendment to the Consti-

For the first regular session they refer to laws for: Establishment of postal savings

Admission of New Mexico and Arizona to statehood. The most extensive census ever

Creation of the commerce court. sweeping amendments to the interstate commerce act.

Ballinger-Pinchot investigation.

Conservation legislation, including authorization of withdrawal of public lands to preserve water sites, and authorization of the issue of $20,000,-000 in bonds for completing irrigating

Legislation designed to suppress the "white slave trade."
Publicity of campaign contributions Amendment to the employers' liability act of 1908; supplemental safety appliance act; requirement that rail roads report accidents to Interstate Commerce Commission, and establishment of bureau of mines.
Reorganization of light-house ser-

Authorization of expenditure of $28,-

MAYNARD MAKES PLEA

Appropriation for Const Defense at Cape Henry Stricken Out. Washington, March 3.—A plea for the appropriation of $150.00 for the appropriation of $150.00 for the acquisition of lands for coast defense at Cape Henry, Va. which defense plan the government boards have been recommending for years, was made in the House to-day by Mr. Maynard, of Virginia.

"mistake, and, at the first ball, to which he was invited a week later, asked Dr. Hill whether he had done so.

"From the moment you and Mrs. Smith arrived," said Dr. Hill, "you have both acted always with tact and judgment, and won the admiration and Virginia.

Mr. Maynard said the Taft board of defense named at the protection of the Chesapeake gapes as the most important project in its recommendations.

When Professor Smith learned of When Professor Smith learned of "Chesapeake Bay," said Mr. Maynard, "is entirely unprotected. If a foreign fee in the Atlantic Ocean wanted to strike us, the first place they would strike would be Cape Henry. Once inside the capes, Norfolk, Richmond, Baltimore, Thiladelphia and the national capital itself would be at the mercy of a foreign fleet." The appropriation was carried in an item in disagreement in the fortideation bill, which was sent back to conference. The amendment to make the $150,000 appropriation was stricken

VIRGINIAN-MAKES

Revelation of Discord Between Professors Munsterberg

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) New York, March 3.--The privilege of attending a court ball and a question change professor at the University Berlin, Professor Hugo Munsterberg, of Harvard, and the Roosevelt professor provision was "an insidious effort to C. Alphonso Smith, of the University of Virginia. It required an appeal to the charged that the present administraas not who felt himself aggrieved, to procur-senator court invitations, of which he considered hmself to have been unjustly deprived. An assurance given to Pro-fessor and Mrs. Smith that they would be presented at the great Schleppen-cour, or court ball, last January, miscarried due, it is said, to the protest of Professor Munsterberg, his colleague, who, being a German and not an American citizen, was supposed not to be eligible to be presented at the function, and is said to have threat ned to protest and appeal to President Taf: if Professor Smith, the Roosevelt > nied nimself. Victory for Dr. Smith.

Only after letters protesting against that he considered an insult to the Roosevelt chair, addressed by Profes-The appropria-The amendment sor Smith to the Privy Councilor and the Cultus minister, did the Virginia professor carry off the victory, with a triumphant presentation at a court ball on February 8, although he had been assured that he could not be invited until February 28. Professor Smith is now returning to this country, and will reach Baltimore in the middle Following the adoption of the bill, of the month.

e Senate took a recess until a P | Three weeks before the date set for the Senate took a recess until 9 P. Three weeks before the date took a recess until 9 P. the Schleppencour Professor Smith called on the American ambassador Dr. Hill, to find out whether he and Mrs. Smith were to be presented.

He received the assurance that they would be presented, and that Mrs. Hill would take them in proper time to call on Countess Brockdorff, the chief lady in waiting. Nothing was said Professor Munsterberg being Professor Munsterberg, It is said, had told Professor Smith and Mrs. Munsterberg had told Mrs. Smith the visit to Countess Brockdorff. A few hours before the time named, how-ever, Mrs. Hill telephoned to Mrs. Smith that the countess had requested that that the countess had requested that the interview be postponed till Jan-uary 14. Half an hour before the in-terview, however, Mr. Laughlin, first secretary of the American embassy, appeared at the Smith home, telling that Barron von Dem Knossenbeck had against the item ever having been put in the bill. Senators Culberson Clarke, announcing to the ambassador a new of Arkansas, and Borah, the former ruling of the court, whereby Americans, previously presented to the Kalser and Kalserin, would not attend the Schleppencour, but would be invited to the subsequent balls.

Among those affected by the new ruling, said Mr. Laughlin, were Dr. and Mrs. Munsterberg, Mrs. and Miss Mont-gomery, who are relatives of former Ambassador Phelps, and the Smiths themselves, Professor Munsterberg, Mr. Laughlin remarked incidentally, had complicated the situation. Embarrassing Questions. The failure of Professor and Mrs. mith to be presented brought em-

APPEAL TO KAISER

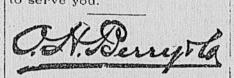

and Smith.

crimp in your face; give your features a fair show—you are not the homeliest man in town. Our $3. hats are worth a dollar more than our brand and worth more than many hats sold at $3.50.

"Berry's for Clothes"

Because our hat business is only a bi-product -a good reason to buy here.

Henry Heath-Stetson-Berry specials-

Makes that make us proud

a galaxy of speeches that were delivered for the sole purpose of entertainment. Mr. Heffin, of Alabama, in a humorous speech, as the clock pointed toward midnight, drifted into political prophecy, pointing to a Democratic presidency in 1913. As Mr. Heffin pro-ceeded, with liberal intermixture of ceeded, with liberal intermixture of anecdote and poetry, there was uproarlous laughter, while from the Demo-cratic cloak room drifted the strains of popular songs, rendered by groups of Congressmen.

Mr. Nye, of Minnesota, delivered Mrs. Munsterberg had told Mrs. Smith some time before that, being Germans, they (the Munsterbergs) could not be presented.

According to information received, Mrs. Hill wrote to Mrs. Smith on January 11, appointing the next day for the visit to Countess Brockdorff. A of Arkansas, and Borah, the former two with much heat, suggested that some members of the Committee on appropriations had not known that the item was in the bill.

Just before the reading clerk reached the item in the bill. Senator Lorimer arose.

"The next item in the bill," he said, "provides for my reimbursement in defending my right to a seat in this chamber. The expenses were heavy, of course, and were incurred very unjustly. But I feel I cannot permit this item to be passed upon by the Senate, and therefore I ask that this item, which is an amendment to the House bill, be not agreed to."

Senators Culberson and Overman were on their feet in an instant. Both are members of the Appropriations barrassing questions from many German and American friends of theirs. A week later, to their surprise, they saw in the names of those in attendance at the Schlappencour, those of Mr and the stem could be some to the demands to know how furnishing 310,000 incandescent lamps. Fourteen bids were received, and thirteen of them were identical to a penny $-$50,51,31. The investigation soon after developed the fact that $0,000,000 incandescent lamps are used each year in the United States, valued at about $18,000,000. The defendants in the suit filed to-day are charged with controlling the manufacture and sale of 97 per cent, of that amount.

Attorney-General Wickersham has given much personal attention to the suit. His assistant, W. S. Kenyon, is in direct charge of it, and Wade II. Fills is one of the specially retained counsel for the government.

AMUSEMENTS

by the churlish inconsiderateness of the offenders.

In spite of the play, however, Otis Skinner again proved what all follow-cry on the American again proved what all follow-cry of the cheatre, know—that he is seasily the first "reader" on the american stage, and one of the most finished, polished and artistic players of our day. In repose, his face is sad, almost, and yet; in the part of Roulette, there is rarely a moment when it does not express the utmost care-tree deviltry and abandon to the whimsical humor of the moment. To those who care for clean, clear-cut, beautiful reading, perfect polse, and the balance of the pluperfect school of French pantominists, his work is a never-ending source of delight.

The Leonle of Izetta Jewel was at tractive and charming. One quite understood, this time, why she fascinated the swaggering Deals, Mabel Bert, as allie, de Saint-Salhi, was a pictureson, study in sad silver and gray, and nce and night. Lubin-Vaudeville.

Academy-Otts Skinuer, in "Sire," matinee and night. Bljou-"My Cinderella Girt,"

Otis Skinner. probable and incoherently unconvincing; Otis Skinner's performance is ex-ing: Otis Skinner's performance is exquisitely polished and artistically perfect. In a word, you have one man's opinion of the latest offering of an actor whose work he admires almost extravagantly.

It is the year 1848, and Louis Philippe is on the throne of France. Mile, the Countess De Saint-Salbi is one of many who believe that the little dauphin, who would have been Louis VII. still lives. Her old doctor and abbe (who remind one of strikingly similar characters in Egerton Castle's "The Secret Orchard"), believing that her faith, her tender, foolish faith, is affecting her mind and ruining her similar characters in Exerton Caste's "The Secret Corchard"), believing the similar of the source of the course of

South Richmond Bureau,
The Times-Dispatch,
1020 Hull Street.
Phone Madison 175.

Arising from his bed, where he has been confined since he threw himself into the canal Monday, Charence Moles of Powhatan Street, yesterday left his home and hurled himself across the car tracks on the Cowardin Avenue Bridge in an unsuccessful attempt to end his life. The approaching Forest fill car was brought to a stop a few feet from the prostrate body, and the crew, with the help of several passengers, lifted the man from the tracks onto the car and carried him to Seventh and Perry, where a police officer took him in charge.

Moles's mania for self-destruction, brought on, it is thought by ill health tractive and charming. One quite understood, this time, why she fascinated the swaggering Denis. Mabel Bert, as Mile, de Saint-Salbi, was a picturesquestudy in sad silver and gray, and played with a gentleness and cortacts that won the audience.

The other members of the company were more than satisfactory. It is impossible to find fault with the scenary, the costumes, or the stage management. "The play's the thing."

W. D. G.

Lavedan's "Sire" is fantastically im- NEW WORLD'S RECORD MADE BY BONDS, OF CLEVELAND

Buffalo, N. Y., March 3.—A new world's record was made at the Na-ticnal Bowling Association Tournament by the Bonds, of Sleveland. Their total score of 2,969 is seven points better than that made by the Lipmans, or Chicago, at Pittsburg, two years ago. Other high scores of the night were made by the Oxfords, of Newark, N. J., 2.791, and the Bradchants, of Bradford.

Pa., 2,767. The O'Learys, of Chicago, rolled up a total of only 2.654, but Metcalf, of that team, made a new high mark for the tournament in his third game, when he bowled 256.

News of South Richmond

BY SORDID CRIME

terno. Not in many years has the capital been so stirred by a sordid crime. Paterno late to-night was slowly improving. The bullet which he need with the intention of killing himself remains imbedded in his skull. Although he is conscious and able to talk, he has refused to give any exkilled the woman who had befriended

The police, however, are not averss The police, however, are not averse to making known what their investigations are unfolding. These, they say, show that Paterno treated the woman brutally before he maily killed her. The princess, frail and unhappy with her bushend, they always fell care her husband, they alleged, fell easy prey to the rapacious nobleman, whose scandalous adventures had brought him to the threshold of expulsion from the aimy.

the army,
According to the pelice, Paterno met the princess in 1968 at Palerno. He became the triend also of the prince.
The friendship between the two men became so great that Paterno had himself made head of the local Mafia and brought about the election of Prince Trigona as Mayor of Palermo.
It is reported also that the prince. It is reported also that the prince, returning home one night from a meeting of the municipal council, found his wife and Paterno together. Entaged, the prince fired upon Paterno, but missed his mark, and Paterno escaped.

| Description of the municipal council found his wife and Paterno together. Entaged, the prince fired upon Paterno escaped.

When Queen Helena was informed of the relations existing between Paterno and the princess, she called the princess before her and induced her to confess everything. Throwing herself at the feet of the Queen, and crying out in her desperation, the princess took oath that she would break with Paterno, begin life anew and henceforth be only an affectionate mother to her two little daughters.

From this moment, according to the authorities, Paterno seeing that his prey was about to escape, became furious in his actions toward the princess, and several lines created and several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Elizabeth L. Scott, of the county, died a few days ago at her residence, of heart trouble, aged seventy years. She is survived by her husband and three brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. Elizabeth L. Scott, of the county, died a few days ago at her residence, of heart trouble, aged seventy years. She is survived by her husband and three brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. Hizabeth L. Scott, of the county, died a few days ago at her residence, of heart trouble, aged seventy years. She is survived by her husband and three brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. March 3.—Mrs. Hizabeth L. Scott.

Spotssylvania, Va., March 3.—Mrs. Silvabeth L. Scott, of the county, died a few days ago at her residence, of heart trouble, aged seventy years. She is survived by her husband and three brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. Hizabeth L. Scott, of the county, died a few days ago at her residence, of heart trouble, aged seventy years. She is survived by her husband and three brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. March 3.—Mrs.

Hampton, Va., March 3.—Mrs.

Jane Mellen.

Special to The Times-Dispatch. I Hampton, Va., died in her residence and two sisters.

Gheat trouble, aged seventy years. She is survived by her husband and three brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. Mary Jane Mellen.

Special to The Times-Dispatch. I Hampton, Va., died in her residence and the survived by her husband and three brothers and two sisters.

furious in his actions toward the princess, and several times creuted furious in his actions toward the princess, and several times created scenes even within the Quirinal itself, shouting, "I shall murder you; I shall strangle you—here in the royal palace, amid the ladies of the court next to the Queen."

Paterno's demands for money, it is family.

Officer.

John E. Tignor.

(Special to The Times-Elspatch.)

Hampton, Va., March 3.—John Edward Tignor constable in Wythe district, died to-day in his home, Chapel Street, aged Offy-six years. He was born in York county, and was a member of a prominent Tidewater Virginia family. Paterno's demands for money, it is family said, became more and more imperative, and once, it is alleged, he even attacked the princess in the ante-chamber to the room in which were the King and Queen. The princess, in defending herself on this occasion. broken, and this Paterno picked up and put in his pocket. Then he left her, still threatening.

The patrimony of the princess because of her loans or gifts to Paterno is said to have been reduced to $169 month.

daughters of the murdered woman were driving out in a court carriage. availing up to this time.

Names of influential citizens of the Southside are daily being added to a petition for the pardon of the aged white man, William Fowler, who was recontly gentenced in the Police Court to serve ninety days in jail for the theft of wood belonging to R. E. Gar nett. Fowler, bowed with age and weakened with infirmities, touched the hearts of all in the Police Court by the pitiful recital of the hardships that had led him to the theft of the wood to keep his family from freezing. hey asked, as was their custom, for their mother. No one had the heart to tell them the truth, so they were with an automobile accident, and that her return to the palace therefore would be delayed. Two locks of hair were cut to-day from the head of th dead woman and later will be given to her children.

A post-mortem examination to-day showed that the princess was first wounded in the back and then in the neck. Either of the wounds would Faneral of Mr. Lacy.

The funeral of Sidney F. Lacy, who died Thursday night at his bome after a lingering illness, will be conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence, 1728 Buchanan Street Delegations from Henderson Lodge of Odd-Fellows and the Confederate Veterans Camp, of which Mr. Lacy was a member, will attend the funeral services. have been mortal. On the left arm also were found two slight wounds.

One Customer Writes:

"Your new policy of a flat price of ten cents a copy for popular sheet music is, I think, right in line with your usual progressive methods, and will be appreciated by thousands of people to whom the 'popular' music of the day makes a strong appeal."

talk, he has refused to give any explanation as to why he stabbed and Also Music Books at lowest prices. Operatic and Classic Sheet Music.

> COME IN TO-DAY and hear your favorite Victor Records-and any of the NEW ones you would like to have us play over.

Cable Piano Co. 213 E. Broad St.

A GABLE AD EVERY DAY

re and more imperais alleged, he even incess in the anteroom in which were een.
in defending herself
had her bracelet
Paterno picked up

Pater

Mrs. Mary A. Hardenbergh. ISpecial to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericks Hall, Va., March 3.—Mrs.
Mary Attmore Hardenbergh, wife of J. V. Hardenbergh, died Thursday evening. She leaves a husband and five children—Elizabeth C., Sarah J.
John V., Jr., Charles D. and H. Hall.

MARRIAGES

FOX-WOODDY—Married, in Washington, D. C., March 2, VIRGINIUS W. FOX and MISS DORA E. WOODDY, of Manquin, Va., by Rev. G. J. L. Hunnicutt.

DEATHS

WEISIGER—Died, at the residence of Mrs. D. Willson Bragg, Petersburg, Va., at 10:30 P. M., March 3, 1911, MRS. LOUISE CHRISTINE WEISIGER, widow of General David A. Weisiger, in the eighty-fourth year of her age.

Funeral notice later.

ZISSEE-Died, at the home of her sis Thirty-third Street, Richmond, Va. at 4 P. M., March 3, 1911, MISS MOLLIE ZISSEE, sixty-four years old. She is survived by three brothers and four sisters.

Advice to the Aged. Age brings infirmities, such as siug-gish bowels, weak kidneys and blad-der and TORPID LIVER.

stimulating the bowels, causing them to perform their natural functions as in youth and IMPARTING VIGOR. to the kidneys, bladder and LIVER. They are adonted to old and voung.

INCREASE

Your business by judicious advertising. Our advice is free, our plans are complete, results are assured.

Freeman Advertising Agency, Mutual Building, Richmond. - Virginia.

"The Results of Systematic Savings"

COMPUTATIONS SHOWING ACCUMULATIONS OF MONTHLY SAVINGS DEPOSITS Of One to Twenty Dollars in One to Five Years, When Interest is Compounded Semi-annually at 3 Per Cent. Per Annum.

Monthly
Deposit. 1 Year.	2 Years.	3 Years.	4 Years.	5 Years
$ 1.00 $ 12.19	$ 24.75	$ 37.67	$ 51.00	$ 64.72
2.00 24.39	49.50	75.37	102.03	129.49
3.00 36.58	74.25	113.08	153.06	194.26
4.00 48.78	99.01	150.79	204.11	259.06
5.00 60.97	123.78	188.47	255.13	323.81
6.00 73.17	148.54	226.20	306.19	388.62
7.00 85.36	173.29	263.90	357.22	453.37
8.00 97.56	198.06	301.60	408.26	518.15
9.00 109.75	222.81	339.28	459.28	582.91
10.00 121.95	247.57	376.99	510.33	647.70
11.00 134.14	272.33	414.70	561.37	712.47
12.00 146.34	297.10	452.43	612.43	777.28
13.00 158.53	321.85	490.11	663.47	842.06
14.00 170.73	346.62	527.82	714.49	906.81
15.00 182.92	371.37	565.51	765.52	971.57
16.00 195.12	396.13	603.22	816.58	1,036.38
17.00 207.31	420.90	640.93	867.61	1,101.14
18.00 219.51	445.65	678.62	918.64	1,165.91
19.00 231.70	470.41	716.33	969.70	1,230.70

754.05 1,020.75 It has been our pleasant fortune to assist many along the road to pros-Perity. Cut out this table of figures above and let it serve as a reminder to lay aside a portion of your earnings regularly.

One dollar will start an account here, by mail or in person. Write for booklet, "Banking by Mail."

. Savings Department, Twelfth and Main Sts., Richmond, Va.

Capital, $300,000.00. Surplus and Profits, $1,300,000.00.

THE NEW INTERNATIONAL ENCYCLOPEDIA SAYS

TRADE-MARK ALL DRUGGISTS